You'll see from our calendar that we will be presenting very interesting programs this year and for the first time have scheduled meetings and a lecture during January. We have a new meeting place, 6328 - 22nd Avenue N.E., Seattle, which is large enough for our Saturday lectures as well as Monday meetings. Our new quarters cost $100 a month more than our old meeting place did. Also, unpleasantly, our Saturday programs didn't pay for themselves last year and were subsidized by dues. Because of the increased rent and the need to keep our programs self-supporting the Board has raised membership dues and program fees.

CALENDAR

October 2 6:00 p.m. SUPPER Come for a glass of wine and order a hamburger (or bring your own). Take time to look over our new quarters and get acquainted.

October 4 JUNG AND SELF-DISCOVERY On four successive Wednesdays (October 4, 11, 18 and 25) Merria Quigley will present a course in basic Jungian psychology as an introduction for beginners and a review for others. Mrs. Quigley is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University who has taught at the University of Puget Sound, and she has presented this material in the Tacoma Community College Encore program. Fee: $10.00 for the series, pay at the first meeting. Call Merria Quigley in Tacoma, 546-8948, to register.

October 16 THE FRAGMENTARY IN ART AND THERAPY Dr. Sonja Marjasch has devoted much attention to fragments--bits and pieces, wandering lines, unexpected breaks--in art and analysis. Her doctoral studies were in English literature, and she is a graduate of the C. G. Jung Institute, Zurich, who has practiced in Zurich for many years. She is remarkably open, imaginative and independent and unusually sensitive to literature and other arts. Members: $7.50 Others $8.50 Pay at the door.
